

Small ISPs like Sonic in Santa Rosa are invaluable. The service they provide is exceptional and immediate. It would be a detriment to many if small ISPs were "squashed" by large communications companies. Small companies like these that provide exceptional service is what makes this country so great. Please don't take them away!